

Album Review: Contradictions by Side FX

Album Name: Contradictions
Artist: Side FX
Year/Label: 2010 / Independent

[\[Download at Amazon\]](#)

[\[Side Fx on Emusic\]](#)

Review by Anna Maria Stjärnell

The expressive singer Kim Cameron fronts Side FX on this multifaceted offering.

Opener Scattered sees the band play in perfect synergy whilst Cameron's vocals are bright and lovely.

Come a Little Closer is sensuous and puts the emphasis on Cameron's gorgeous vocals. Chris Nikpora's guitar parts are exquisitely played and makes me think of Fleetwood Mac.

Won't Back Down is a tough, somewhat edgy song with a typically good vocal. It's easy to sing along to.

Never Forget closes the album on a bright, optimistic note. Cameron sings a credible song that looks at love from an interesting viewpoint.

It's a good album.