Last week, Great Americans announced that it will provide each blogger at the upcoming 2009 MilBlog Conference the opportunity to record free video blogs with our crew. This week, we're excited to announce another special treat: Patriotic singer/songwriter Kim Cameron from the Side FX Band, along with guitarist Chris Nikpora, will entertain attendees at the conference's Friday-night cocktail reception with inspirational music, including "My Hero" -- Cameron's popular tribute to United States troops.

At Great Americans, we're proud to share the stories of real-life American heroes that too often go ignored by today's mainstream media. To that end, we're pleased to highlight some of the likeminded bloggers who have demonstrated their support for our vision by recently posting Great Americans content for their audiences to enjoy.

This section is regularly updated to ensure that these bloggers get the credit they deserve for embracing our motto: "Ordinary people. Extraordinary deeds."
